Lansing schools set sights on ‘academic success’

Kathleen Lavey

Lansing schools set sight on ‘academics success’

We’re going to put him back to work, and put the episode behind us. I can only restore this man. I can only consider a refusal to provide reasonable accommodation to a person with a bona fide disability. I can only consider a refusal to provide reasonable accommodation to a person with a bona fide disability.

In violation of Ms. Koonter’s post-employment non-proselytization condition, you are continuing to follow through with his work. ‘The sooner, the better.’

MDOT worker with ‘shy bladder’ wins battle

LANSING (LSJ) — A former state Department of Transportation electrician who was found guilty of stealing campaign signs has won a court battle to get his pension back.

State police are investigating whether a signs stolen from a Lansing union hall are linked to a theft at a school.

FRESH FOOD

The Lewton Elementary School PTO is looking for 100 volunteers to help with a landscape project at the Lansing school.

The Lewton Elementary School PTO is looking for 100 volunteers to help with a landscape project at the Lansing school.

Market brings locals fruits, veggies to Lansing’s west side

Local fruits and veggies have arrived on Lansing’s west side, thanks to a market program that started with help from Ingham County and the state. Residents said they’re excited to have fresh produce available off Butler Boulevard.

Lansing schools set sights on ‘academics success’

The Lewton Elementary School PTO is looking for 100 volunteers to help with a landscape project at the Lansing school.

The Lewton Elementary School PTO is looking for 100 volunteers to help with a landscape project at the Lansing school.

Market brings locals fruits, veggies to Lansing’s west side

Local fruits and veggies have arrived on Lansing’s west side, thanks to a market program that started with help from Ingham County and the state. Residents said they’re excited to have fresh produce available off Butler Boulevard.

The Lewton Elementary School PTO is looking for 100 volunteers to help with a landscape project at the Lansing school.

Market brings locals fruits, veggies to Lansing’s west side

Local fruits and veggies have arrived on Lansing’s west side, thanks to a market program that started with help from Ingham County and the state. Residents said they’re excited to have fresh produce available off Butler Boulevard.

Market brings locals fruits, veggies to Lansing’s west side

Local fruits and veggies have arrived on Lansing’s west side, thanks to a market program that started with help from Ingham County and the state. Residents said they’re excited to have fresh produce available off Butler Boulevard.